Welcome

to the Dallas Safari Club Northeast's Annual Banquet 2025! We are so glad that you're here and hope that you have an enjoyable experience. By merely attending our banquet, you are directly supporting wildlife conservation, outdoor education, and hunter advocacy. Every dollar you spend on drawings, silent auctions, or in our live auction will help us further these causes.

We'd also like to take the time to thank our many sponsors whose donations make this event possible. Many of these outfitters have been with us for several years and care deeply about our mission, so we can assure you that whether you've won an Argentina dove hunt or an Alaskan fishing trip, you'll be in good hands.

If you are participating in our live or silent auctions, please take the time to carefully read over the descriptions before bidding so that you won't have any surprises after winning a hunt or item.

To those who win a trip with one of our sponsors, we encourage you to take advantage of the upgrades that are offered with your adventure to enhance your experience. And after your once-in-a-lifetime hunt, gratuities for your guides and all who made your experience possible are greatly appreciated, as they help support our generous donors.

Again thank you for your generosity, and good luck!

Sincerely,

DSC Northeast Board of Directors

By submitting a bid in the DSC Northeast Annual Banquet 2025 aution, the bidder acknowledges and agrees to the following:

LIVE AUCTION BIDDING PROCEDURES

TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LIVE AUCTION, THE BIDDER WILL TAKE RESPONSIBILITY TO READ THE DESCRIPTION OF EACH ITEM CAREFULLY PRIOR TO THE AUCTION. THE AUCTIONEER WILL NOT READ AND REVIEW THE FULL DESCRIPTION OF EACH ITEM.

Due to limitations established by third party donors, there may be a minimum bid necessary in order to sell an item. Specific goods and/or services described in the official auction offering constitute the full and complete agreement between the high bidder and DSC Northeast, its Board of Directors, donors, and Dallas Safari Club, individually and/or collectively. The DSC Northeast Chapter Board of Directors reserves the right to accept or reject any bid offered on an item identified in the auction item description as having a reserve bid.

If bidding on a trip or hunt, the bidder shall recognize that some of the items on donated trips may include additional expenses not listed in the description including, but not limited, to the following: travel expenses to and from destination; hotel and meals before and after the hunt; alcoholic beverages; trophy dipping, packaging and shipping; certain licences, gratuities; and value added tax (VAT). Trips may not be transferred, re-sold, or bartered by winning bidder(s) without prior written agreement from both donor and DSC Northeast.

Most trips, unless otherwise noted, are for specific dates or years. Donated trips MUST be taken during the dates specified unless special arrangements have been agreed upon with the donor in writing in advance. Donors are under no obligation to honor trips outside date range(s) specified. The bidder should not bid on trips if there is any question the bidder will be able to take the trip within the specified time frame. The buyer must contact the donor within 30 days of the auction to arrange scheduling. It is the buyer's responsibility to communicate and to apply for any required tags by stated deadlines, NOT the responsibility of DSC Northeast Chapter, nor the donor.

Any arrangements other than as set forth in the auction listing are expressly between the donor and bidder.

All bids submitted are legally binding offers to purchase and if accepted as the high bid by the auctioneer, constitutes a legally binding contract between the bidder and DSC Northeast. Anyone wishing to participate in bidding on any live auction item may do so by raising their bidder card. Once submitted, no bid may be removed. The auctioneer is the sole authority in establishing specific bid increments, the high bidder (purchaser), and the amount bid. Successful bidder acknowledges further that, should their bid be accepted as the high bid by the auctioneer, they are legally responsible to consummate the sale not later than the 12:00 a.m. the date immediately following the auction sale.
